The collection of McGraw Hill Access Engineering can be accessed from here:

The screenshot shows the McGraw Hill Access Engineering website. At the top, the browser address bar displays `accessengineeringlibrary.com/front?implicit-login=true`. The website header includes the McGraw Hill logo, the text "ACCESS Engineering", and navigation links for "About", "Administration", "Help", "Off-campus access", and "What's new". A yellow "My account" button is visible in the top right. Below the header, a dark banner features the text "The award-winning engineering reference platform for academics, students, and professionals." A search bar with the placeholder "Search AccessEngineering here..." and a "Search" button is positioned below the banner. Underneath, a section titled "Browse AccessEngineering content by..." contains three blue buttons labeled "Subject", "Industry", and "Course". Below these are several white buttons: "Books", "Videos", "Spreadsheets", "Case Studies", "Other", and a button with a magnifying glass icon labeled "Explore material properties using DataVis". At the bottom, a row of book covers is displayed, including titles like "Handbook", "Schaum's", "Textbook", "Code Commentary", "2018 International", and "Engineering Refere...". The Windows taskbar at the very bottom shows various application icons and the system clock indicating 7:41 PM on 26/08/2020.
